

St. Louis Business Journal Honors Exceptional Corporate Counsel with 2024 Awards

Celebrating over a decade of collaboration, the Association of Corporate Counsel, St. Louis Chapter and the St. Louis Business Journal proudly present the 2024 Corporate Counsel Awards, recognizing the pinnacle of legal talent driving innovation and excellence in the corporate landscape of the region.

The Corporate Counsel Awards distinguish outstanding legal professionals across all levels of corporate legal departments, including in-house generalists, specialists, chief legal officers, and general counsel, representing diverse industries and organizations. Each award recipient embodies the highest standards of legal expertise and leadership, contributing to their company's strategic vision and success.

This year's honorees are trailblazers in areas such as mergers and acquisitions, compliance, human resources, and beyond, reflecting the evolving roles of corporate counsel in shaping their organizations' trajectories. Selected by a committee of Chapter members in collaboration with the St. Louis Business Journal's editorial team, the 2024 program proudly recognizes 10 winners, including the prestigious titles of General Counsel of the Year and Rising Star.
