

ACC STL Partners with St. Louis Business Journal

To Select 2022 Corporate Counsel Award Recipients

For the past nine years, our chapter has partnered with the St. Louis Business Journal to recognize the top in-house counsel in the region with the “Corporate Counsel Awards.”

This year's nine winners are experts in M&A, compliance, human resources, and a slew of other company segments as their roles have continued to evolve to include other aspects of their respective company's overall strategy. The award recipients were selected with the help of a group of ACC STL members along with the Business Journal's editorial team.

The 2022 Corporate Counsel Award Recipients are:

- Seth Hawkins, Vice President and General Counsel, Anheuser-Busch*
- Chris Koster, Executive Vice President, Secretary and General Counsel, Centene*
- Sarah Holdener, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary, Moto Inc.*
- Amit Shah, Senior Vice President and General Counsel, MiTek
- Christine Carney, Senior Associate General Counsel, Emerson*
- Jack Terschluse, Corporate Counsel and acting Corporate Secretary, Balto*
- Jackie Burkhardt, Senior Director of Legal, Core & Main*
- Katherine Moore, Real Estate Associate Counsel, McBride Homes*
- Ken Goins, Attorney, Metropolitan Sewer District*

We congratulate the 2022 Corporate Counsel award recipients for being leaders in the corporate counsel field and exemplifying excellence in their careers.

Current ACC STL members*