

ACC STL Members Enjoy a Heat-Delayed Yet Rejuvenating 2023 Golf Event

Despite a weather-induced postponement, the Association of Corporate Counsel – St. Louis Chapter's annual Golf event proved to be a resounding success, offering members a chance to unwind, connect, and gain valuable insights.

Originally scheduled for August, the golf tournament was moved to October due to an excessive heat wave at the time. The rescheduled tournament took place on October 13 at the picturesque Forest Park Golf Course, where Bob Craddick, Steve Lillis, Brandon Hall, and Calvin Matthews formed the winning team.

In August, members also attended a Continuing Legal Education (CLE) seminar, providing a comprehensive overview of current legal trends and issues.

"The CLE program for the event is very topical and full of useful information," remarked Bob Craddick, 2023 ACC STL Golf & Spa Chairperson and Reliant Care Management Company In-House Counsel. "The Four Seasons spa is the best in St. Louis and the golf course is first-rate."

The ACC STL Chapter extends its heartfelt gratitude to the event's generous sponsors, whose unwavering support makes these enriching experiences possible:

- Armstrong Teasdale
- Amundsen Davis
- Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner
- Greensfelder
- Husch Blackwell
- Lewis Rice
- McMahon Berger
- Ogletree Deakins
- Polsinelli
- Stinson
- Teuth Keeney Cooper Mohan & Jackstadt
- Thompson Coburn
- Tucker Ellis

"The event is a good chance for our members and sponsors to meet in a variety of settings to spend a Friday together outside of our normal circumstances," added Craddick.

The ACC STL Chapter remains committed to providing its members with opportunities for professional development, networking, and camaraderie, ensuring a thriving and connected legal community.
