

Campus Events the week of February 24, 2025

Did you know that right here on the UK campus, we have an incredible art museum showcasing treasures from around the world?

The University of Kentucky Art Museum, a part of the UK College of Fine Arts, fosters the understanding and appreciation of art from diverse cultures and historical periods. The museum offers meaningful experiences for visitors of all ages through its temporary exhibitions, educational programs, and a permanent collection of over 5,000 objects. It serves as a cultural hub for both the UK campus and the broader community, welcoming visitors from across the Commonwealth and beyond.

Even better, the museum offers free admission, ensuring that there are no financial barriers to experiencing these enriching opportunities for reflection and connection. For more information on visiting this hidden gem at UK, visit UK Art Museum Website
