

the All Saints' Monthly

News and Announcements from All Saints' Episcopal Church

Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Saints,

'To every thing there is a season' says the book of Ecclesiastes, and this is the end of a season for our practice at All Saints' of publishing a monthly church magazine. As with so much in our lives today, the world of church communications has gone digital. Manuscripts we had once produced with typewriter and sent to press have evolved to become beautifully crafted and curated imagery and word which can be accessed in all manner of ways and from anywhere. Knowing that some of us still need to receive printed materials we will continue to send out regular updates from the parish by mail. For Monthly, it is farewell. I am so very thankful for all of you who have contributed to this publication through the years in its various forms. We grow and change and continue to tell the story, in new and vibrant ways.

Peace,

Introducing Seasons

Dear Saints,

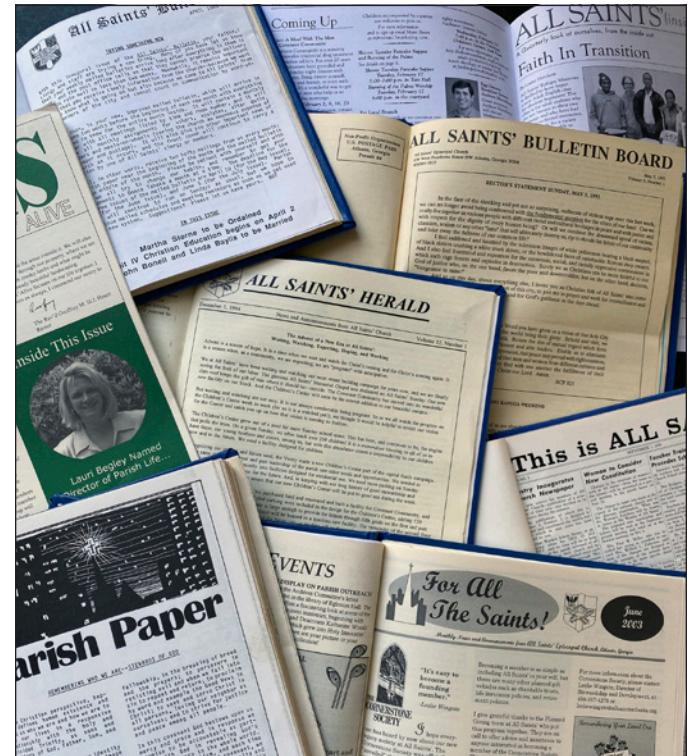

As many of you have experienced in your own areas of work and influence, COVID-19 has invited and expedited myriad opportunities for courageous and thoughtful adaptation.

During this season of being the church distributed, All Saints' has made great strides in engaging our local neighbors, while expanding our reach quite literally "to the ends of the earth" (Acts 1:8). Hundreds now gather from across the nation and abroad to be nourished by God's Word and Spirit online.

In December you will notice further significant changes in the way we communicate within the parish and to our city. Most notably, a newly revamped website will launch, complete with a fresh new look and logo, as envisioned in our 2018–2021 strategic plan. Our traditional shield insignia will remain in use in formal documents and in our liturgical paraments.

Also beginning next month, our ongoing announcements will be communicated primarily through the website, Friday e-news, and the printed Sunday bulletin. All Saints' Monthly will be discontinued as we introduce the first issue of Seasons, a new print publication focused on sharing the stories of the saints through creative writing and imagery.

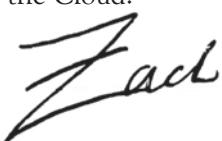

Rest assured that we will continue taking great care to stay connected with parishioners who are not online, as we take advantage of the opportunity and resources made available to harness and enhance our print offerings in this vibrant and meaningful new way.

To learn more, please join me on December 6 at 11:00 a.m. on Facebook and Vimeo for the official unveiling of our new website in a forum titled "Join the Cloud: All Saints' Online."

Peace,

The Rev. Zack Nyein

2019–2020 ALL SAINTS' CONCERT SERIES

Songs of Struggle and Hope with Bradley Howard, Tenor

With a career spanning classical and modern choral works, solo recitals, and opera roles, tenor Bradley Howard has gained recognition as a multi-faceted performer, singing under the batons of renowned conductors Seiji Ozawa, Riccardo Muti, and Robert Spano, among many others. A passionate educator, he joined the faculty of Emory University as Director of Vocal Studies in 2011.

Mr. Howard began his career as a fellow at the Tanglewood Music Center, when his performance in Benjamin Britten's Peter Grimes brought him to the attention of famed conductor Seiji Ozawa. He has performed at various festivals including Spoleto, Chautauqua Opera, The Ohio Light Opera, Tanglewood Music Festival, and Breckenridge Music Institute. Mr. Howard's concert engagements have included a long-time collaboration with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra. As soloist with the ASO, Weill's Seven Deadly Sins, Beethoven's Choral Fantasy, Christmas with the ASO, and, most recently, Saint Saens' Samson and Dalila are among these performances.

Mr. Howard brings depth and excitement of an expansive repertoire to his solo recitals, handling the florid style of Bach and the fragmented tonalities of Britten and Menotti with equal aplomb. His recital for All Saints' this fall will be no exception, featuring art songs, arias, spirituals, and more.

Deepening Christian Faith: Adult Formation Session 4

Dear Saints,

It is a joy to welcome you to our fourth session of Adult Formation! Our purpose is to invite the Holy Spirit's transformation in our lives, deepening our Christian faith for the sake of the world. Our Racial Equity and Healing class features Atlanta's own Catherine Meeks, director of the Absalom Jones Center for Racial Healing. Saints continue their faithful engagement with the news in Jesus on the Front Page, while Martha Eskew explores prayer from the heart, mind, and body. Finally, nationally renowned playwright, award-winning author, performance artist, and Playwright in Residence at Atlanta's Alliance Theater Pearl Cleage joins Simon and Natosha for our Faith in the City series. They will explore ways that faith and the arts help shape culture.

We encourage you to invite your family and friends to join the classes that excite you! We'll get through this pandemic together, and joining each other online has been a great joy.

Blessings, Andy

Theology in Visual Arts

A picture is, indeed, worth a thousand words. Join this conversation with gifted visual artists to explore the connections between shape, color, texture, and line: all telling a story of humanity seeking the divine.

Wednesdays, November 11, 18

Racial Healing In This Time of Pandemics: Where To From Here?

with Dr. Catherine Meeks, Executive Director, Absalom Jones Center for Racial Healing

As we confront the multiple pandemics of Covid-19, social and racial unrest and a very angry environment, what is the best way forward? In spite of it all that is before us, we are challenged to search for the reason to have hope. As we strive to find the way forward, where can we find help? We will call upon scripture, poetry and story to help us engage our questions and concerns.

Sundays, November 15, 22
9:00-9:45 a.m. on Zoom

Pastoral Care at All Saints'

One of our core values at All Saints is the pastoral care of our community. Join the Rev. Drs. Simon Mainwaring and Denni Moss to learn how we offer this important ministry, and how you can share in it.

Sundays, November 15, 22
9:00-9:45 a.m. on Zoom

Parenting with God

Join Kathy Roberts, Director of Children's Ministries, and fellow parents each month and receive articles/book chapters to read as you desire. The monthly conversations focus on "Parenting" and how our faith can provide a path and support us along the journey. Save the date for an additional Parenting with God gathering on December 13.

Vestry Notes

From the meeting on September 21, 2020

The new vestry was commissioned, vestry Officers were elected, and outgoing vestry members were thanked for their years of service. Diocesan Council Delegates and Alternates also were elected. The church remains in sound financial position, although non-pledge income remains down substantially because we and others are not using the physical spaces on the campus (e.g., parking lots) or conducting events (e.g., weddings) that generate such income. Our auditors completed their audit of 2019 financials and presented to the finance committee. We have a clean opinion and no deficiencies of note were identified. Mark McDonald provided an update on capital improvements to the buildings, including removing and replacing rotten wood and repairing masonry, fixing the chapel windows, and adding a heated/air-conditioned security booth in the parking garage. Simon noted the resignation of Giles Brightwell, who took a position in Amsterdam. The vestry also will be reviewing (and approving) in-person-meetings protocols developed by the Public Health Task Force. Sarah Stewart described the All Saints' Connects program, Zack Nyein reported on efforts to engage with children and youth despite challenges posed by Covid, and Andy Barnett described our multitude of adult formation offerings. Finally, Jill Gossett reported on a developing parish life idea around "zip code groups" or "neighborhood circles" to keep members of the parish connected and reduce a sense of isolation during the pandemic. Following An Order for Evening, the meeting was adjourned.

All vestry meetings are open to all.
Please check our online calendar

Help Bring Thanksgiving to our Neighbors with Covenant Community, Refugee Ministries, Threads, and Children's Ministries

This Thanksgiving, the men of Covenant Community are excited to create boxed Thanksgiving meals for former refugee families we serve through our Refugee Ministries program and for the graduates of Covenant Community who live at the Sterne House. Each boxed meal feeds a family of five; the cost is $75 per box. The families will also receive warm winter coats from the Threads Coat Drive. In addition, Children's Ministries will make special Blessing Bags to be distributed to our neighbors experiencing homelessness. These bags will include items like protein bars, hand sanitizer, masks, socks, and more; the cost is $20 per bag. Please support these efforts by sponsoring a meal, a Blessing Bag, or both. We also invite volunteers to help deliver the meals on Tuesday, November 24.
