

Art III & IV

Art III & IV classes have created acrylic shellscape paintings in their study of movement and composition. Each piece began as a charcoal observational drawing, which led to these unique pieces.

