

CHALLAH BAKE

Thursday, February 1st
7:30 pm @TBT
Cost $18

Temple Beth Torah
35 Bagatelle Road, Melville
Thursday, February 1st
7:30 pm
Couvert: $18

Join Rabbi Susie Moskowitz, the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Torah and The Shaloma chapter of Hadassah as we make our very own delicious homemade Challah! Together we will learn everything we "knead" to know to make and braid our very own delicious Challot to delight our family and friends for Shabbat dinner! Please bring along your friends and join us for a night of challah baking, friend making, laughter, fun and of course a nosh!

- ♦ discover the ancient tradition of Challah making
- ♦ learn the art of Challah braiding and its history in Judaism
- ♦ take home your own challah ready to bake for Shabbat dinner!
- ♦ no experience necessary

For more information call

Laurie from the Shaloma Chapter of Hadassah at: tintrop@hotmail.com or \(516\)423-3177423-3177) or
Fern from Temple Beth Torah at: Fernhbern@yahoo.com or \(631\)525-3072525-3072)

RSVP by Monday, January 25 to Fern's email.

Baking supplies need to be ordered so please respond ASAP!

We're looking forward to creating a night of fun with you!!!

All proceeds will go to Stem Cell Research at Hadassah Hospital in Israel

*Please bring your own large size mixing bowl, measuring cups, and apron.
All challah ingredients will be supplied.
Snacks, dessert, and coffee/tea are included with your ticket.