About Izzy

Born and raised in America, Izzy joined a Birthright group traveling to Israel when he was eighteen. His love of Israel motivated him to join the IDF. Izzy lost his dominant arm in battle, but through his sheer determination and drive, he overcame his injury and continues to serve in an elite unit of the Military Reserves. In May of 2011, Shimon Peres, the president of Israel, awarded him the highest accolade a soldier outside the battlefield can receive.
