Re: Traffic Control Coordinator Designations- Extensions

To whom it may concern,

Traffic Control Coordinator (TCC) Refresher training was temporarily halted due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

The New Jersey Department of Transportation in conjunction with Rutgers CAIT agreed to extend the dates of Traffic Control Coordinator designations for those with TCC expiration dates between February 1, 2020 and July 31, 2020. The grace period for these expirations were increased from the traditional 90 days to 180 days.

Based upon Rutgers CAIT successfully being able to transition from an in-person TCC Refresher class to virtual learning, the additional three-month grace period is hereby rescinded as of July 31, 2020. Those falling within the above listed dates that may have exceeded 90 days are encouraged to attend a virtual TCC Refresher scheduled September 17-18, 2020 or November 12-13, 2020 to remain in compliance. TCC designees with an expiration date of August 01, 2020 or later will have the traditional 90-day grace period to attend a TCC Refresher.

Sincerely,

Albert Balluch, Director
