

HOW TO PARTICIPATE IN 80 FOR 80

RECRUIT A NEW MEMBER FOR JCUNA Each new Membership is important because it will

- Be a tangible expression of the new member's support of peace and justice through international cooperation
- Support UNA-USA's educational and advocacy work in our nation's capital, promoting a positive partnership between the U.S. and the UN and enable JCUNA to expand its outreach
- Help fund Model UN activities for Johnson County high school students

What do members get?

- JCUNA's semi-monthly newsletter and UNA-USA's monthly "UNA Today"
- Invitations to JCUNA events and UNA-USA webinars and national meetings
- Action alerts that enable members to speak up in support of the UN
- Special activities for young people to enhance leadership skills and explore international careers
- The opportunity to join affinity groups for women, educators, youth, human rights, and climate and environmental action
- The satisfaction of joining with others to make a difference

Young people, ages 14-17 may join for free; young professionals (18-30) are eligible for a 50% discount; standard membership is $50. Visit <https://unausa.org/join/>

UNA accepts credit card payments from a third parties, so you may purchase a membership for another person, for example a young relative

SPEND UP TO 80 MINUTES COMMUNICATING WITH MEMBERS OF CONGRESS TO URGE A POSITIVE U.S. PARTNERSHIP WITH THE UN

Phone calls to congressional offices are the most effective way to communicate. Call our Iowa senators and your representative with this simple message:

"I am _____, from _____ Iowa. I urge Senator (Grassley/Ernst) or Representative _____ to support U.S. funding for the United Nations as a cost-effective way to enhance our national security and promote U.S. leadership. The U.S. should not defund or drop out of UN agencies but stay and take the lead to improve their lifesaving and life-changing work and make sure our taxpayer dollars are spent wisely." Leave your name, email, or phone number.
