

FOUNDER

Over the course of her expansive career in the financial industry, Sherri Haskell has excelled as Registered Investment Advisor, stockbroker and funds manager. Throughout her career Ms. Haskell has earned 3 SEC securities licenses (series 7, 63 and 65), frequently won top performer recognition from multiple companies, launched her own hedge fund and financial services company, Capital Dynamics LLC, and raised over $150 million in capital. A skilled trader with a natural instinct, Ms. Haskell's methods were so successful that she commanded an entire chapter of Entries and Exits by Alexander Elder, a bestselling financial book highlighting sixteen top investors.

Between trading stocks and managing hedge funds, at the heart of Ms. Haskell's success is a commitment to making only the most pertinent and optimal recommendations for her clients. She recognizes the awesome responsibility of investing people's money and over the years has established trust and fostered relationships with investors that endure to this day.

As a C Level manager for multiple companies including Zap!, Praxis Capital, and Drever Capital Management, Ms. Haskell spearheaded the development and launch of strategic capital campaigns. She has also applied her far-reaching financial, securities, and marketing acumen to the launch and fulfillment of dozens of private equity funds.

Ms. Haskell founded CannaAngels LLC after witnessing first-hand the innovation and eclecticism among cannabis startups. She is a leader in the alternative investment space who understands how to vet companies, structure deals, raise capital, and most importantly, establish trust.
