

Sarita Metzger, MD, MPH, FAPA, FASAM is an early career community psychiatrist and Medical Director at Vanna Health, a startup promoting recovery-oriented, community based care. Board certified in Addiction Medicine, her clinical practice and lectures have focused on culturally informed crisis care and substance use treatment. Dr. Metzger earned her BSE in Chemical Engineering from Princeton University, her MD from Wright State University, and her MPH from George Washington University. She completed residency and a Public/Community Psychiatry fellowship at The University of Pennsylvania where she is now an Assistant Professor of Clinical Psychiatry, directing the cultural psychiatry curriculum. She is Vice President of the Pennsylvania Society of Addiction Medicine and co-chairs the Philadelphia Psychiatric Society Women's Committee.