

Dr. Indranil Chakrabarti, DFAPA is an academic geriatric psychiatrist who leads undergraduate medical education in psychiatry, geriatric mental health services, and telepsychiatry initiatives across diverse clinical settings. His work integrates medical education, digital innovation, and health equity to expand access to care and strengthen workforce training in mental health.