

Dr. Pradipta Majumder is a board-certified psychiatrist based in Central Pennsylvania with a broad background in clinical care, academic medicine, and healthcare leadership. He currently serves as an Attending Psychiatrist and teaching faculty at UPMC Pinnacle, where he is actively involved in patient care and the training of future clinicians.

Dr. Majumder brings extensive experience from prior leadership roles at WellSpan Philhaven, where he served as Site Medical Director and Lead Clinical Director, helping develop innovative programs such as crisis stabilization and shared care models to improve access to mental health services. His clinical interests span across children, adolescents, and adults, with a focus on delivering patient-centered, evidence-based care.

In addition to his institutional work, he is the founder of Silver Spring Psychiatry PLLC, a telemedicine-based private practice providing accessible mental health care across the lifespan. He is passionate about advancing telepsychiatry and has contributed to best practices in the field, alongside authoring several scientific publications.

Beyond his professional commitments, Dr. Majumder values community engagement, cultural initiatives, and family life.
