A SHARED GATHERING ACPE brings spiritual care leaders together

ACPE's Annual Conference convenes spiritual care professionals, educators, and thought leaders from across the country for several days of learning, reflection, and connection. In 2026, the community will gather in Phoenix, a setting that invites both perspective and renewal.

This is more than a professional event. It is a space where interdisciplinary voices meet, where spiritual care is examined with depth and rigor, and where relationships form across traditions, roles, and settings.

Attendees include certified educators, chaplains, psychotherapists, healthcare leaders, and students preparing to enter the field. Together, they represent a highly engaged and values-driven community committed to strengthening whole-person care.

For organizations aligned with education, publishing, wellness, and spiritual formation, this conference offers a meaningful opportunity to connect with professionals who are actively shaping the future of care.
