Leader: In a world filled with violence and war,
People: we gather together to celebrate the promise of peace.
L: In a world filled with tyranny and oppression,
P: we gather to celebrate the promise of justice for all.
L: In a world filled with hunger and greed,
P: we gather to celebrate the promise of plenty for all.
L: Our hope is in the name of the Almighty God,
P: the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer of heaven and earth.

♪ Opening Hymn #698 “God of the Ages”

Prayer for Memorial Day
L: God of Life and Death, Service and Sacrifice, Courage and Compassion.
P: On this day, we remember those who died while serving our nation.
L: And to recognize the veterans who served, whether decades ago or only yesterday.
P: We are internally conflicted on the cost of our conflicts.
L: As idealists, we wish there were never any need for defense forces.
P: Yet as pragmatists, we fear there will always be a need for them.
L: As dreamers, we pray for a day when “nation shall not lift up sword against nation, nor ever again study war.”
P: Yet as realists, we accept that there is such a thing as just war.
L: We thank our soldiers, sailors, and pilots, for doing that which we wish never needed to be done.
P: And we pray for a world where time and talent, strength, and intellect, can be spent in fighting disease, defeating poverty, and defending the downtrodden without having to take up arms.
L: God of Peace and War, Concord and Conflict, Hope and Heartbreak; we pray that the sacrifices of our fallen will forever be remembered, and that recognition of our veterans not merely convey thanks but demonstrate it.

P: May we not merely “proclaim peace to those near and far” but bring peace by doing the work required to realize it.
L: May this be our blessing and let us say with our words and our lives, ALL: AMEN.
