♪Opening Hymn #144

“This Is My Father's World”

This is my Father's world, and to my listening ears

All nature sings, and round me rings the music of the spheres.

This is my Father's world: I rest me in the thought of rocks and trees,

Of skies and seas; his hand the wonders wrought.

This is my Father's world, the birds their carols raise,

The morning light, the lily white, declare their maker's praise.

This is my Father's world: he shines in all that's fair; in the rustling grass

I hear him pass; he speaks to me everywhere.

This is my Father's world. O let me ne'er forget

That though the wrong seems oft so strong, God is the ruler yet.

This is my Father's world: why should my heart be sad?

The Lord is King; let the heavens ring! God reigns; let the earth be glad!

Centering Prayer

Lord, we come into your presence with an openness of heart. Just as new life springs forth from the seed, we trust that lives of faithfulness, service, and love in action will come from the seeds of faith you have planted in our hearts. Pour your mercy upon us this day as we draw closer to you and one another, exploring how we continue to grow in your grace to become better instruments of your love. AMEN.

“Hymn of Promise”

In the bulb there is a flower; in the seed, an apple tree,

In cocoons, a hidden promise: butterflies will soon be free!

In the cold and snow of winter there's a spring that waits to be,

Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

There's a song in every silence, seeking word and melody;

There's a dawn in every darkness, bringing hope to you and me.

From the past will come the future; what it holds, a mystery,
Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

In our end is our beginning; in our time, infinity;
In our doubt there is believing; in our life, eternity.
In our death, a resurrection; at the last, a victory,
Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

"You Are the Seed"

You are the seed that will grow a new sprout; you're a star that will shine in the night;
You are the yeast and a small grain of salt, a beacon to glow in the dark.
You are the dawn that will bring anew day; you're the wheat that will bear golden grain;
You are a sting and a soft, gentle touch, my witnesses where'er you go.

[REFRAIN] Go, my friends, go to the world, proclaiming love to all,
Messengers of my forgiving peace, eternal love.

Be, my friends, a loyal witness, from the dead I arose;

"Lo, I'll be with you forever, till the end of the world."

You are the flame that will lighten the dark, sending sparkles of hope, faith, and love;
You are the shepherds to lead the whole world through valleys and pastures of peace.
You are the friends that I chose for myself, the word that I want to proclaim.
You are the new kingdom built on a rock where justice and truth always reign. [REFRAIN]

You are the life that will nurture the plant; you're the waves in a turbulent sea;
Yesterday's yeast is beginning to rise, a new loaf of bread it will yield.
There is no place for a city to hide, nor a mountain can cover its might;
May your good deeds show a world in despair a path that will lead all to God. [REFRAIN]
