

Scholastic Assistance Sunday

Scholarship Awards

United Methodist Church of Red Bank

June 21, 2020

The Scholastic Assistance Committee, once again, wishes to thank our congregation for your interest in, encouragement of, and generous and consistent financial support of the work of our committee. Even with the challenging events brought about by this year's COVID-19 virus, including a "virtual" Corned Beef and Cabbage Dinner, together, we have been able to provide significant scholarships to eleven of our outstanding young people, awards totaling $16,250.

The Scholastic Assistance Committee is pleased to announce the following scholarship awards:

Molly McGroary of Middletown will be a senior at the University of Maryland—College Park. Her major is Cell Biology and Genetics. Molly receives the Nancy Lynott Memorial and the Mildred Schultz Memorial.

Deanna Reimertz of Middletown will be a senior at American University. She will continue to pursue a double major of Theatre Performance and Psychology. Deanna receives the Vi and Phil Hanson Memorials and the Robert Stout/Schaffer Memorials.

Corey Van Huff of Neptune City will be a senior at McDaniel College. His major is Theatre Arts. Corey receives the Ruth E. and Otto Guenther Memorials, and the Nan and Robert Sadler Memorials.

Lily Calabrese of Ocean will be a junior at Loyola University in Maryland. Her majors are Global Studies and Spanish. Lily receives the Albert C. and Dorothy K. Vetter Memorial and the Emily R. Shopp Memorial.

Shannon Foreback of Middletown will be a junior at Susquehanna University, majoring in Creative Writing. Shannon receives the Elizabeth G. Jeffries Memorial and the Esther E. Wallace Memorial.

Charlotte Jansky of Little Silver will be a sophomore at Michigan State University, majoring in Saxophone Performance and Music Education. Charlotte receives the Mary Poyner Memorial and the Donna Glaser Memorial.

Ryan Moore of Middletown will be a sophomore at the University of Delaware, majoring in Cognitive Science. Ryan receives the Minor Tilton/Sarah Armstrong Memorials.

Tyquann Crawford of Red Bank will be a freshman at Smeal Business College at Penn. State. His major will be Business Management with a minor in Real Estate. Tyquann receives the Agnus B. Murphy Memorial and the Peter M. Delaney Memorial.

Ryan Foreback of Middletown will be a freshman at Denison University in Granville, Ohio. His major will be Economics. Ryan receives the Eula and Lloyd Swanson Memorials and the Rev. Roger and Marjorie Squire Memorials.

Renee Goga of Red Bank will be a freshman at Temple University, majoring in Cellular Molecular Neuroscience, Pre-Med. Track. Renee receives the Harold and Miriam Coddington Memorials and the Dale Otten Memorial.

Gavin Lindsay of Middletown will be a freshman at Ursinus College in Pennsylvania. His majors will be Theatre and Accounting. Gavin receives the Ralph DiNaples/Joseph Rizzo Memorial and the Ellen Davis Kerfoot Memorial.

Congratulations to all!

And congratulations to Dulani Northover, our Scholastic Assistance graduate!

Dulani Northover of Red Bank graduated from George Washington University in May of 2020 with a major in International Affairs, with a regional concentration in Europe, and a minor in the German language and literature. We will be surrounding Dulani in prayer during his job search.