♪Opening Hymn #383

“This Is a Day of New Beginnings”

This is a day of new beginnings, time to remember and move on, time to believe what love is bringing, laying to rest the pain that's gone.

For by the life and death of Jesus, God's mighty Spirit, now as then, can make for us a world of difference, as faith and hope are born again.

Then let us, with the Spirit's daring, step from the past and leave behind our disappointment, guilt, and grieving, seeking new paths, and sure to find.

In faith we'll gather round the table to taste and share what love can do.
This is a day of new beginnings; our God is making all things new.

Centering Prayer

Praise to You, faithful God of life and freedom. Giving thanks, we celebrate your deep desire for equality and dignity amid diversity. Lamenting violence, indifference and greed, we pray for and advocate with those whose rights are ignored, violated, denied... those displaced, abused, trafficked... and all committed in peace to human rights. Send us your energizing Spirit to speak truth and be light in darkness. With trust and hope, we pray in the name of Jesus who stood with those oppressed, bringing Good News for all ages. Amen.

In Our Prayers

We trust that God rejoices with us in times of celebration and weeps with us in times of suffering. This week, we pray especially for the sick, the hungry, the burnt out, the lonely, and the fearful. We pray for and with those who work on the front lines of the Coronavirus pandemic. For those who are mourning this day, give comfort, healing, guidance, and hope. We pray for Betty Tanis, Tom and Kathy Brounley, Bob Beaudoin, David Henritz, Barbara Roguski, Dr Joseph Moore, and Marjorie Lilley. Grant us the strength to follow you, and the courage to share your transforming love with all. Amen.
