Litany Commemorating the life of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.
Hear this, O People of the Dream: It is good and right that you recall the memory of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and the movement which mobilized him. The journey to the Beloved Community is sometimes dark and desperate and dangerous, and we need God’s light to orient our hearts and direct our feet.

We confess, O God, that the dream once shared with unmatched eloquence on our nation’s lawn has been tamed by pious sentiment and framed for commercial interests. Ignite in us again the Word that inspires us to stand up against every form of oppression, every form of hate, against every slaver’s chain, until the Faith which death could not contain, the Hope which doubt could not constrain, and the Love which fear could not arraign lifts every voice to sing till earth and heaven ring! Pastor Terrance Porter
Senior Minister at Pilgrim
Baptist Church in Red Bank

Pastor Porter was installed as the 14th Pastor of the historic Pilgrim Baptist Church in May of 2003. With the affirmation of faith and the foundation set by his predecessors, he has led Pilgrim to utilize its facilities and properties to galvanize community relationships in order to extend Pilgrim’s Christian Witness in the community of Red Bank and beyond. Philosophically, he believes the church should never compromise its message of love and hope for all. To that end, he has promoted a community ideology that "we can achieve more in partnership - rather than in isolation."
Since 2007 he has also served as the President of the Red Bank Affordable Housing Corporation. RBAHC recently completed the construction and sale of 36 Townhouses in the city of Red Bank. The development known as “Cedar Crossing” is an $8 million project which has provided affordable homeownership to families from the shore region.
