UWF Craft Group 2/13

Stop by the Craft Group Card Table on Sunday mornings to see the beautiful Valentine cards we have created for you. Your donations of $1/card will help UWF make their budgeted donations to missions.

UWF General Meeting 2/17

All are invited to the next general meeting of the UWF on February 17 at 10 AM. We have a wonderful speaker scheduled to be with us --Kabaka Ndala Alphonsine from Tanzania. Our church helps support Kabaka and her husband so this is your chance to meet and listen to her.

National African American Read-In 2/24

From 10:00-12:00, all are welcome to bring their favorite title by an African-American author to read (or have read) for the group, or just join us and listen. *The National African American Read-in is an effort to encourage communities to read together, centering African American books and authors. It was established in 1990 by the Black Caucus of the National Council of Teachers of English to make literacy a significant part of Black History Month.
