Member Profile:

Having previously worked in wealth management and commercial banking, Jennifer made the leap to insolvency when she moved to the UK in 2008. For several years, she focused on non-contentious transactional work including trading administrations and insolvent liquidations. She has dealt with a breadth of industries, but has focused namely on the care home and retail sectors.

After coming back from maternity leave in 2015, Jennifer switched to contentious insolvency. She currently works with the Special Investigations team at RSM who deal namely with fraud investigations, contentious litigation and high-profile bankruptcies.

Jennifer is a Certified Accountant (ACCA) and a member of the Steering Committee of the IWIRC London Network.
