THE MASTER'S GENEROSITY

Every one of us has been given unique talents. These are meant to be shared with others. In our Synod, district, circuits and congregations, we have multi-talented people among us. You are one of them! Your gift may be in music, administration, finance, teaching, cooking, planning or repairing. Even in simple conversation we care for others. Jesus calls us to be generous in using our abilities. We do this in faith toward Him and in love for our neighbor.

We all admire generous individuals who freely give and offer help to others. They do so with a joyous and happy heart. These are folks we treasure at home, at work and at church.

Why do we respect such persons? I think I know why. They model what God our Master is like. There is no one more generous than God. Consider the beauty of the universe and the amazing earth upon which we live. Admire the stars and the mountains and the wonder of watching a hummingbird hover in place. God the Father created all of this for our enjoyment and sense of awe.

Jesus tells the parable of the master of a house paying all the laborers the same amount for their work in his vineyard. He will picture for us the generosity of God. In Matt. 20:1-2 He says:

"For the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a house who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard."

A denarius was a fair wage for a day's work.

District President

However, the work day was 12 hours long. There was much work to be done in the vineyard. So the master continues to hire people at the third, sixth, ninth and 11th hour. No reason for people to be idle when there was plenty of work and wages for all.

At the end of the day, it was time for the workers to be paid. Jesus says in v. 8-9:

"And when evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Call the laborers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last, up to the first.' And when those hired about the eleventh hour came, each of them received a denarius."

Then the resentment began. The parable continues in v. 10-12:

"Now when those hired first came, they thought they would receive more, but each of them also received a denarius. And on receiving it they grumbled at the master of the house, saying, 'These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.'"

In the midst of a beautiful generosity to all, these workers respond with an ugly jealousy. It's like the boy who complains that his brother got a bigger piece of cake. Selfish and petty complaints are not appropriate after experiencing liberality.

Jesus concludes with the overall point of this parable in v. 13-16.

"But he replied to one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a denarius? Take what belongs to you and go. I choose to give to this last worker as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or do you begrudge my generosity?' So the last will be first, and the first last."

God the Father created us. God the Son redeemed us. God the Holy Spirit sanctifies us. The Holy Trinity pours out the blessings of forgiveness of sins, life and salvation upon us all. Each one receives the same "denarius" of eternal life.

Faith in our Lord Jesus Christ is empowered by the water and Word of Holy Baptism. By the spoken Word of Holy Absolution, our sins are released from us. Through the bread and wine with God's Word in Holy Communion, Christ feeds us His body and blood as our medicine of immortality. God gives, we receive. That is truly divine service!

30-year vision now reality in Glenpool

King of Kings, Glenpool, broke ground on their new building on July 14. In the early 1990s, the Oklahoma District purchased 13.5 acres of land in Glenpool for the purpose of a new church plant. The congregation was organized in 2005 and moved into its current building in 2007.

"This vision has been a long time coming for our community," said Rev. Rick Tabisz, King of Kings pastor. "We have worked with the Lutheran Church Extension Fund to make this site our permanent home and have long awaited this dream."

King of Kings kicked off a capital-fund drive in 2011, titled "God's Plans, Our Future." Funds have been raised and plans made for the new building. The new site has hosted vacation Bible school, a "Lift High the Cross" hot-air balloon ministry, and 12 live Nativity presentations, which were well attended by the community.

Happy 30!

On June 12, members of Christ, Shattuck, and Bethlehem, Perryton, Texas, helped celebrate Rev. Gary McClellan's 30th ordination anniversary. Pastor McClellan, a native of Nebraska, has served as Christ's pastor since 1994 and began providing pastoral services to Bethlehem in 2002. He most recently began serving as vacancy pastor at Trinity, Woodward.

Pastor McClellan also serves as Panhandle Circuit visitor and has been very active in the development and support of Lutherhaven Retreat Center in Knowles. The congregations are pleased and blessed to celebrate 30 years with Pastor McClellan, and pray that his ministry continues to touch others as it has touched ours.

Matthew, Jessica and Emma Sparks were welcomed as members of First, Ada, on July 3.

David Ramthum, pictured with his parents, Roma and David, and Rev. Ryan Honeycutt, was confirmed at Redeemer, Claremore, on June 12.

Quilts made with love

At Redeemer, Claremore, the LWML mission quilters meet to work on quilts every week and are well on their way to completing their goal of 100 quilts. Along with quilters around the state, the ladies are working to meet their goal before the Lutheran World Relief (LWR) ingathering on Oct. 4 at Messiah, Oklahoma City. Pictured are, from left, Roz Burger, Dorothy Gilbreath, Marcia Dow, Bonnie Schulze and Kathy Fletcher.

LWR distributed its first quilts in 1945 to families in war-torn Europe following World War II. Today, an average of 300,000 quilts are lovingly given worldwide each year.

Blessings at First, Chickasha

▲ Congregation members of First, Chickasha, are pictured on July 3 with Rev. David and Sharon Thompson on the occasion of David's retirement. He has served First first since 1996, when he graduated from Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Ind. (CTSFW).

We are overjoyed that he freely dispenses his mercy in Word and Sacraments upon people of all nations, languages and cultures. He is generous to all. So, whether you have been serving in your congregation for 50 years or for five years, the Lord is happy that you are in his kingdom doing your best work. Generosity begets more generosity. There is plenty to go around. Our generous Master enlivens us to be generous servants who happily serve our neighbor with large hearts!
